Footwear Keynotes Vacation Wardrobe Harmonies

What kind of Summer holidays are you dreaming about? A leisurely resort on a sunny beach? A hotel visit to a big metropolis with shops and theatres in the offing? A camping trip involving a canoe and treks through deep woods? A truly-rural Judy Canova vacation down on the farm? Or a do-as-you-like, stay-at-home time sun-bathing in your own back yard, picnicking in the park, playing tennis, movies-and-dancing with your best beau? Wherever you go, whatever you do, you'll find that the factor that contributes most to your enjoyment of those two delectable weeks is comfortable, appropriate footwear. We're offering you a summary of "summery" shoes. Make the selections that fit in best with your vacation plans.

The wardrobe of vacation footwear—casual sports and play shoes—travel and dress styles—are on display at Betty Lee in Warren under the brand names of Marquise, Jacqueline, Jacqueline Jr., Cor. e. lo-velers. They are nationally advertised in Vogue

Harper's Bazaar, Good Housekeeping and many other leading fashion magazines.

In closing, let's state what you, dear reader, have sensed between the lines: To be really serene, smart-looking, carefree, at your best during your Summer holidays, be sure your feet are happy.

Dispatch Libel Suit Changed To Fed. Court

Erie, May 19—Damages in the amount of $500,000 are sought from the Erie Daily Times, George J. Mead, general manager, and John J. Mead, Jr., editor, in a libel action filed in the United States District Court here by Attorney Edward Lamb, publisher of the Erie Dispatch and president of the Record Publishing Co., of Erie. Decision to bring the action in the Federal courts rather than in the Erie county courts was made in order to speed up trial, it was said by Attorney William Knox, representing Mr. Lamb, as the papers were filed with Miss Clara Roudousis, deputy clerk of courts at the Federal Building here.

In his petition Mr. Lamb based his action against the Times on three counts:

1—Headlines and a news article in the issue of May 5, calling him a Communist.

2—Similar allegations in a news article in the Times on May 8th.

3—An invasion of his right of privacy. The libel action is based on news stories which have been appearing in the Times in what Mr. Lamb contends is a repetition of a "sneer" campaign occasioned because he has been granted five radio licenses by the Federal Communications Commission for television and frequency modulation stations in Erie, Columbus, Mansfield and Springfield, Ohio.

Personal Paragraphs

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cagle and John Brochman of Niagara Falls, visited yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Morley of 309 Poplar street.

Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Miller, Holyoke, Mass., were overnight guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jack, 302 Prospect street, while en route to Milwaukee, Wis., to attend the Northern Baptist convention. Mrs. Miller is a niece of Mrs. Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Emanuele and sons, Anthony and Sammy, with Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Emanuele and daughters, Vicki and Sandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Magda, have returned to their homes in Greensburg after spending the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Vano, 203 Dartmouth street.

Compulsory old-age insurance was first adopted in Germany in 1883.

Man Raises His Arms Above His Head For First Time In Years

A few days ago a man said the rheumatic pains in his arms and shoulders disappeared and now he can raise his arms above his head for the first time in years. He said the pains he used to have from this rheumatism were simply awful. Sometimes his knees and hips were stiff and sore but the pains were mostly in the back of his neck and across his shoulders. Now, however, his suffering is entirely gone and he says the change is due to taking TRU-AID. "Oh! What relief!" states this man. Why don't other rheumatic sufferers get TRU-AID?

TRU-AID is a new formula. It contains Three Great Ingredients, so it is almost like taking three medicines in one. It goes right to the source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Sold by All Drug Stores here in Warren.

FIREMEN TO MEET

The North Warren Volunteer Fire Department will meet this evening in the North Warren firehouse at 8:30 o'clock instead of the usual time of 8 o'clock. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

NEW ANNOUNCER

The new voice heard over Station WNAE during station breaks the last few days is that of Richard Andersen, teacher at Beaty Junior High School. Mr. Andersen will do part time announcing for the local station during the summer.

TRUCK BADLY DAMAGED

A loaded lumber truck was damaged to the extent of $1,700 when it careened off the Ludlow-Morrison highway and plunged down an embankment, State Police from the Kane barracks reported. Lewis Maslin, 24, of Glendon, was driving toward Morrison when his brakes failed. He was unhurt.

LIGHT FROST

Light frost in scattered spots was in evidence this morning to early risers. However, it is believed that not much damage was done as growing things are pretty well advanced at this time. The weather prediction today says that there will be the same type of frost again tonight with Thursday sunny and warmer.

SCOUTS INVITED

The Pack Committee of the Youngsville Cub Pack wishes to announce that all Scouts and their parents are invited to the Pack meeting on Friday evening in Youngsville high school. Following ceremonies in which one Cub will be graduated into Scouting, Chuck Tranter, WNAE announcer and magician, will put on a half hour show for the Cubs and their guests.

DESTROYS MACHINES

According to an Erie paper District Attorney Damian J. McLaughlin was granted permission by Judge Elmer L. Evans to destroy a quantity of gambling materials and liquor seized in various raids and held as evidence over a period of several years. The material includes ten slot machines, 100 punch boards, a raffle wheel and 50,000 pads of "numbers" slips besides all cases of 20-year-old beer, and numerous partially-emptied bottles of whiskey, wine and gin.

TITUSVILLE METER TAKE

Titusville Herald: The receipts from the parking meters under the new 25-cent fine provided a free meal for members of city council last evening. Lessor Levy treated the mayor, the four councilmen, the city solicitor and the city clerk to a steak dinner at the Colonel Drake Hotel. At a council meeting a few months ago, Mr. Levy stated that the city would not receive as much money if it raised the amount of the parking fine, but if it did he would give a dinner for members of council. Last night's meal was the "pay off."

TODAY is pay day for all the folks who have classed ads.

South Penn To Sell Leases And Furlough All Workers

According to the Oil City Derrick: The South Penn Oil Company of Bradford will announce within the next few days the proposed sale of oil properties in the Oil City and Titusville districts and the furloughing of "between 50 and 60" lease workers in the area.

George Hanks, president of the oil firm, was contacted by phone in New York city last night and he revealed that between 400 and 500 wells are involved in the proposed sale.

He also said that some of the leases which have the company furloughing more than 200 oil field workers in this section are "entirely unfounded."

The South Penn Oil head said that the list of properties which will be disposed of in this district has not yet been completed, and that when the list is completed it will be released for publication.

However, the furloughed workers will be given first opportunity to purchase the property, Hanks said.

The men with the biggest severance pay will have the first chance to purchase the wells. After all the workers, who have been laid off, have had an opportunity to purchase properties, the remaining leases will be put up for sale to "outsiders," Hanks said.

The South Penn president stated that none of the workers will be furloughed before the end of June, 1948.

Hanks said that the decision to sell the properties was prompted by the fact that they were proving economically unprofitable.

"The higher labor and material costs and the higher taxes have made the low-producing properties economically unprofitable," he said last night.

He pointed out, however, that the Bradford firm will continue to hold oil properties in this section, particularly in the Pleasantville area where production has been good.

Hanks said that the Bradford

firm will continue to spend money in this district for secondary recovery and will be guided by the findings and recommendations of its geologists.

Rumors that South Penn Oil company would sell oil properties in this section prevailed in Oil City yesterday. Some of the unfounded reports stated that several hundred workers would be affected.

Some of the workers who will be furloughed after the properties are disposed of have been with South Penn for many years, some of them for two or three decades.

RUNNAGE SALE

The Truth Seekers Class of the Grace Methodist church will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday at the Eagles building in Pennsylvania avenue, west.

TO OPERATE MUSEUM

Father J. Alfred Richard, first head of the newly created American Province of White Fathers, who recently arrived in Oil City to take over River Ridge Farm, the former Joseph C. Sibley estate, recently purchased by the White Fathers, has announced that the missionary fathers plan to operate a museum at the farm containing souvenirs of Africa which will be open to the public during certain hours of the day.

CHARGE IMPERSONATION

Frank Frith, 20, of Wesleyville, was arrested Sunday morning in Erie and booked on an open charge after he had been found impersonating a woman. Frith, an honor student at Wesleyville High school and also a parolee, told police the masquerade was his idea of "fun." He had been arrested for a previous similar offense and adjudged guilty of a morals charge. He is under parole until 1953.

BUYS GRAVEL ULANT

The board of supervisors took Chautauque county out of the sand and gravel market indefinitely if not permanently when its members voted 35 to 2 to spend $35,185 for a Cedar Rapids sand and gravel processing plant. The action was taken less than 11 months after the termination of the county's last sand and gravel contract precipitated an investigation that led seven months later to the resignation of W. Bruce Chilson as county highway superintendent.

HIT-RUN CRASH

Corry Journal: State Police of the Corry detail are attempting to locate an area driver who may have unknowingly been involved in a hit and run accident just outside Corry on the road to Spring Creek Saturday night. Daniel J. Little, Corry, R. D. 4, reported to officers that a car had passed his machine and then sideswiped the front end when cutting in front of the vehicle. Little was unsuccessful in catching the second car but did obtain a license number. A check of Harrisburg registration files yesterday showed a mistake had apparently been made in taking the number. Little's car was not seriously damaged. Officers said it was possible that the second driver did not realize he had hit Little's machine.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL

Attorney Franklin B. Hosbach has filed an appeal for a new trial for Willie Gleaton, 33-year-old Erie handyman, who was sentenced Thursday to serve from 10 to 20 years for the murder of Frank Johnson, 22, Judge Elmer L. Evans, who imposed sentence following Gleaton's conviction by a jury, granted a rule to show cause and will set a date for a hearing later. Hosbach claimed the conviction was against the weight of the evidence and against the law. He charged that the court had erred in referring to first degree murder in its charge to the jury. Attorney Hosbach said in his appeal that no evidence was introduced to substantiate a first-degree murder charge. He also charged that the court had erred in commenting at length on the testimony of the commonwealth and not commenting on the defense testimony.

PAT'S FADS!

Patricia has a little hat. At least I 'spose she calls it that. It's turned up here and turned 'down there. With funny-business everywhere. What keeps it on when breezes blow? Gosh! Don't ask me I wouldn't know. Her nails are painted, sharp and long. Think twice before you do her—wrong. She paints her lips and paints her face. For all I know some other place. Why does she fix herself that way? Gosh! Don't ask me; I couldn't say. And through her shoes she shows her toes. Though why she does nobody knows. She shaves her eyebrows off and then. She paints some others on again. She dyes her hair a flaming red. It may be that has turned her head. What got her into such a mess? Gosh! Don't ask me—I couldn't guess.

South Penn To Sell Leases And Furlough All Workers

According to the Oil City Derrick: The South Penn Oil Company of Bradford will announce within the next few days the proposed sale of oil properties in the Oil City and Titusville districts and the furloughing of "between 50 and 60" lease workers in the area.

George Hanks, president of the oil firm, was contacted by phone in New York city last night, and he revealed that between 400 and 500 wells are involved in the proposed sale.

He also said that some of the rumors which have the company furloughing more than 200 oil field workers in this section are "entirely unfounded."

The South Penn Oil head said that the list of properties which will be disposed of in this district has not yet been completed, and that when the list is completed it will be released for publication.

However, the furloughed workers will be given first opportunity to purchase the property, Hanks said.

The men with the biggest severance pay will have the first chance to purchase the wells. After all the workers, who have been laid off, have had an opportunity to purchase properties, the remaining leases will be put up for sale to "outsiders," Hanks said.

The South Penn president stated that none of the workers will be furloughed before the end of June, 1948.

Hanks said that the decision to sell the properties was prompted by the fact that they were proving economically unprofitable.

"The higher labor and material costs and the higher taxes have made the low-producing properties economically unprofitable," he said last night.

He pointed out, however, that the Bradford firm will continue to hold oil properties in this section, particularly in the Pleasantville area where production has been good.

Hanks said that the Bradford

firm will continue to spend money in this district for secondary recovery and will be guided by the findings and recommendations of its geologists.

Rumors that South Penn Oil company would sell oil properties in this section prevailed in Oil City yesterday. Some of the unfounded reports stated that several hundred workers would be affected.

Some of the workers who will be furloughed after the properties are disposed of have been with South Penn for many years, some of them for two or three decades.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Truth Seekers Class of the Grace Methodist church will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday at the Eagles building in Pennsylvania avenue, west.

TO OPERATE MUSEUM

Father J. Alfred Richard, first head of the newly created American Province of White Fathers, who recently arrived in Oil City, to take over River Ridge Farm, the former Joseph C. Sibley estate, recently purchased by the White Fathers, has announced that the missionary fathers plan to operate a museum at the farm containing souvenirs of Africa which will be open to the public during certain hours of the day.

CHARGE IMPERSONATION

Frank Frith, 20, of Wesleyville, was arrested Sunday morning in Erie and booked on an open charge after he had been found impersonating a woman. Frith, an honor student at Wesleyville High school and also a parolee, told police the masquerade was his idea of "fun." He had been arrested for a previous similar offense and adjudged guilty of a morals charge. He is under parole until 1954.

BUYS GRAVEL ULANT

The board of supervisors took Chautauque county out of the sand and gravel market indefinitely if not permanently when its members voted 35 to 2 to spend $35,185 for a Cedar Rapids sand and gravel processing plant. The action was taken less than 11 months after the termination of the county's last sand and gravel contract precipitated an investigation that led seven months later to the resignation of W. Bruce Chilson as county highway superintendent.

HIT-RUN CRASH

Corry Journal: State Police of the Corry detail are attempting to locate an area driver who may have unknowingly been involved in a hit and run accident just outside Corry on the road to Spring Creek Saturday night. Dana J. Little, Corry, R. D. 4, reported to officers that a car had passed his machine and then sideswiped the front end when cutting in front of the vehicle. Little was unsuccessful in catching the second car but did obtain a license number. A check of Harrisburg registration files yesterday showed a mistake had apparently been made in taking the number. Little's car was not seriously damaged. Officers said it was possible that the second driver did not realize he had hit Little's machine.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL

Attorney Franklin B. Hosbach has filed an appeal for a new trial for Willie Gleaton, 33-year-old Erie handymen, who was sentenced Thursday to serve from 10 to 20 years for the murder of Frank Johnson, 22, Judge Elmer L. Evans, who imposed sentence following Gleaton's conviction by a jury, granted a rule to show cause and will set a date for a hearing later. Hosbach claimed the conviction was against the weight of the evidence and against the law. He charged that the court had erred in referring to first degree murder in its charge to the jury. Attorney Hosbach said in his appeal that no evidence was introduced to substantiate a first-degree murder charge. He also charged that the court had erred in commenting at length on the testimony of the commonwealth and not commenting on the defense testimony.

PAT'S FADS!

Patricia has a little hat. At least I 'pose she calls it that. It's turned up here and turned 'down there. With funny-business everywhere. What keeps it on when breezes blow? Gosh! Don't ask me. I wouldn't know. Her nails are painted, sharp and long. Think twice before you do her—wrong. She paints her lips and paints her face. For all I know some other place. Why does she fix herself that way? Gosh! Don't ask me. I couldn't say. And through her shoes she shows her toes. Though why she does nobody knows. She shaves her eyebrows off and then. She paints some others on again. She dyes her hair a flaming red. It may be that has turned her head. What got her into such a mess? Gosh! Don't ask me—I couldn't guess. William B. Lynde

A BUDDY POPPY REMINDER

For the seventh year since Pearl Harbor, our people will find themselves decorating the graves of the nation's honored dead on Memorial Day while the spectre of war again looms on horizons not too far distant.

Are we keeping the faith with the heroes who died in yesterday's battles? Do those who rest in the hallowed graves of our national cemeteries and in distant lands sleep in peace? If they could speak to us from their silent tombs—would they commend our efforts to justify their sacrifices? Or would they deplore our failure to appreciate how great a price they paid to defend the nation which they entrusted to our care? Would they agree we are doing our utmost to defend the legacy of freedom which we inherited through their patriotism? Or would they rebuke us with silent contempt for the pledges we have failed to keep?

There is reason to believe history will testify that America, as a nation, fought its way to victory in World War II inspired by an unconquerable desire for the blessings of human liberty. We predict that future historians will make due note of America's steadfast allegiance to the fundamental ideals of freedom for which its hero dead have given their lives. Whether or not we as individual citizens have earned the mute respect of our soldier dead poses a question which we must answer for ourselves. In our own hearts we know how far we have permitted our patriotism to encroach upon our personal comforts or our selfish desires.

Each man must be his own judge and jury. If the verdict finds him guilty of disloyalty to our country, punishment is inescapable. He may succeed in fooling others, but he is doomed to suffer a sense of self-loathing whenever he remembers the brave men to whom the spirit of Memorial Day is dedicated.

Let us all—each and every one of us—perpetuate our undying gratitude to our fallen veterans by making sure that those who survived do not remain in need. Let us see that the dependent orphans and widows of our valiant dead do not suffer from want. This may be achieved most effectively by your purchase of a V. F. W. Buddy Poppy on Friday and Saturday, May 21 and 22. On those days Warren may demonstrate that it has not forgotten. Contribute liberally—there is no more worthy cause.

HIGHWAY DEATHS

We are off to the greatest slaughter of persons with automobiles in the history of the Commonwealth, according to trends shown in a comparison of traffic fatalities for the first three months of 1948 with the first three months of 1947.

The net total for 1948 shows a decrease of 9 traffic deaths, but only because of a marked let down in this type of accident during January when traffic was at a minimum because of bad weather. February and March show substantial gains over the comparable months of last year. It has appropriately said, "It may be your life next, so drive and walk carefully."

The cause of these deaths is clearly indicated in the analysis—in one word—SPEED. Driving so fast that control of the car was lost momentarily when confronted with an emergency is beyond a doubt the greatest single cause of fatal accidents, in fact accidents of any type.

By far the greatest increase in fatal accidents is shown in rural areas, on unimproved stretches of road where the foot gets a little heavy on the accelerator. The rural roads show an increase of 34 per cent for February and 25 per cent for March while urban areas remain almost constant in their accident rate.

Warren county so far is fortunate. A glance at the statistics reveals a decrease of three traffic deaths in this county for the 1948 period.

Just a small amount of care will keep it in the decrease column.

MIGHT BE WORTH A TRY

The President has offered Congress a $27,323,000 bargain. He wants that sum to hire 10,000 more tax-enforcement officers and raise the pay of others in the interest of better collections.

The Treasury claims that we lose a billion dollars a year through tax evasion. If this is true, something surely should be done, especially with the present tax cut and high defense expenditures looming ahead. The President's offer may not be a guaranteed bargain. But if there is a chance to recover that billion for about one-fortieth of the amount, it would seem to be worth the gamble.

It's a great life in this country of ours if you don't get spring fever—or if you do.

MacKenzie's Column

By MOHAMED WAGDI For DeWitt MacKenzie

Caro, May 18 (AP)—Arab unity is undergoing an acid test in the current Palestine crisis.

Often in the past the Arab world has been torn with differences and competitions among its rulers. Up to now the fight against Zionism has tended to bring these rulers together. Whether old rivalries would remain buried as Arab armies occupied part of Palestine was a big question in many minds.

The Arab world is governed by four royal dynasties and two heads of republics. The lives of the leaders are almost a modern history of the seven Arab states.

King Farouk of Egypt, 28 years old, granted refuge in Egypt to the aging rift warrior, Abd El Krim, old foe of France and Spain in northwest Africa, and gave sanctuary to Hajj Amin El Hussein, the British-ruled Mufti of Jerusalem.

Soon after King Farouk came to the throne, he broke up diplomatic relations with the Axis, and gave the British and Allied armies in his territory all facilities which the Anglo-Egyptian alliance of 1936 provided.

After the war, when negotiations with Britain for revision of the 1936 treaty failed, his government tried unsuccessfully to get the security council to order British troops out of the Suez canal zone, which is Egyptian territory.

His known ambitions are to achieve complete independence of his Nile valley kingdom, and to consolidate Egypt's leadership of the Arab world.

Across the Red sea from Egypt lives powerful King Abdel Aziz Ibn Saud, of Saudi Arabia, who built a kingdom with his sword in years of fighting with Arab tribes.

In the course of this adventure Ibn Saud defeated King Hussein, then king of the Hejaz, a district which includes the holy places of Arabia. Two of King Hussein's sons, who had aided the British in World War I, found themselves elsewhere—Faisal I in Iraq and Abdullah in Trans-Jordan. A third son Ali, succeeded his father as king of the Hejaz, but lost his throne to Ibn Saud.

In the last decade Ibn Saud's government has come into an union of more than $20,000,000 a year from oil developed by the Arabian-American Oil Company. The aging monarch's kingdom is now oil supplier of the United States navy.

Abdullah has inherited from his father the dream of "greater Syria" which would include Palestine, Syria, Lebanon and Trans-Jordan. Thus, plan paused rifts in his relations with many Arab countries. It led also to coolness between Abdullah and the Mufti of Jerusalem.

The regent of Iraq, Faisal Abdul-Ilah, is another Hashimite. His father was King Ali, son of Hussein, in whose favor the latter abdicated the throne of the Hejaz in 1923. After losing the Hejaz to Ibn Saud, King Ali acted as deputy to his brother, King Faisal I of Iraq. Abdul-Ilah is now regent to the boy king Faisal, grandson of Faisal.

Iraq, under his reign, was the first Arab country to declare war against the Axis. Previously, there had been a rebellion there against the British.

Shukri El Kuwadi, the Syrian president, struggled for the independence of his country and its liberation, first from Turkey rule and then from a French mandate. In this struggle he lost great wealth and is considered now one of the poorest presidents in the world.

Sheikh Bushara El Khouri, the Lebanese president, is over 60 years old. A well known lawyer in the Lebanon, he was elected president in 1943.

His policy is closely coordinated with that of his Syrian colleague and the two countries have almost one policy in many matters. Hajj Amin El Hussein, exiled Mufti of Jerusalem, and bitter enemy of Zionists, started his career as an officer in the Turkish army. He fought with the Turks in the first World War.

IT HAPPENED IN WARREN 52 YEARS AGO

NOTE: This is the eighth in this series on Warren 52 years ago. We wouldn't believe some of these items were true if we hadn't actually "seen it in print" in the Warren Evening Mirror of 1896. The ninth appears tomorrow. Look for it.

Dens of vice and crime were shown and their methods explained at the First Methodist church Junior Epworth League flashlight meeting Monday night when Prof. Van Liew gave the program. The scenes were interspersed with music. Parts of "Rock of Ages" was illustrated by Prof. Van Liew. —forerunner of the movies.

Crepe de menthe looks innocent, but it is well to remember it is not peppermint water. —not even back in '96?

A Clearfield girl wrote and sent the usual quarter to find out how to whiten her hands. The answer came back, "Soak them in dish water." It tickled her mother more than if she'd been given a new bicycle. —playful beauty hints.

It is claimed that there are in Warren and its suburbs between six and seven hundred wheels. These represent a cash outlay of $50,000. A man who has owed his grocer or meat market for three or four months has no right to plank down a hundred dollars for a wheel. —in 52 years we're ready to pay any amount for a car—if we can only get one!

Bugs, frogs and serpents continue to be favorite forms in jewelry. . . . —before the days of DDT.

Why is it she of the silk petticoat always finds the streets so muddy that to raise her gown is a necessity? asks the Feminine Observer. —we're coming back to questions like this.

Fortunately, whining is going out of fashion, and it is now considered, and rightly, more womanly to meet trials and troubles, both small and great cheerfully. There is not a man in the world brave enough to cope with a woman who whines. —who remembers the whining era?

The Clarendon Torpedo Company tells the public in 1896, "We are prepared to put in Tropedoes on short notice at the lowest living prices. We use the very best of Pure Nitro-Glycerine. Annual Banquet
Of DeForest Class

The theme used for the annual banquet of the Gerda DeForest Class of First Presbyterian church, held at the Hotel Carver, was "In the Garden." A centerpiece of fresh vegetables and favors were also in keeping with the theme. The toastmaster, Catherine Henderson, presented an amusing program in which the members participated.

Mrs. DeForest distributed to each member several keepsakes which will help them remember the occasion.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. DeForest was presented with an appropriate gift.

The committee in charge of arrangements for this delicious dinner was comprised of Agnes Mong, Olive Phillips, Mildred Duff, Marie Oimstead and Marie Richards.

Beautiful Church Rite May 15 Unites
Helen Ann Nyberg-Robert E. Clark

Irvine Presbyterian church was the scene of a beautiful candle-light wedding on Saturday evening, May 15, when Helen Ann Nyberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Nyberg of Irvine, was united in marriage to Robert Eugene Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clark, Youngsville.

The double ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock by Dr. W. J. Prout. The altar was decorated with an attractive arrangement of white lilacs and pink snapdragons, palms and candelabra, and single candles on pedestals. The setting was complemented with candles and matching flowers placed in each window.

Miss Lillian Swanson, Youngsville, played "At Dawning," "Venetian Love Song," "To a Wild Rose" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony, also the traditional Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches. She was also accompanist for Byron Swanson, Warren, who sang "Because" and "I Love Thee" before the ceremony, and "O Blessed Love" with couple knelt at the altar following prayer by Dr. Prout.

The bride was very lovely in ivory satin, with long train and veil. Her princess style gown had long, fitted sleeves coming to points over the hands, and seed pearls edged the Venetian lace yoke and inserts extending over the top of the sleeves. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and for something old she carried a lace handkerchief fashioned from the wedding gown of a great-aunt. Her flowers were pink roses and lilies of the valley and a spray of the latter caught the back of her veil as it fell from a brief shirred tiara.

Given in marriage by her father, she was attended by her three sisters, Marian and Verna as bridesmaids and Elsa as maid of honor. The bridesmaids wore identical frocks of yellow taffeta, with matching mitts, gold headbands and slippers, and carried orchid tulips with gold and orchid streamers. The maid of honor wore a pink taffeta gown, with matching headband and shoulder length veil. Her flowers were carnations, blue, pink and white, with blue and silver streamers.

Jack Dalley, Irvine, was best man and ushers were Henry Nyberg and Jim Clark, brothers of the principals.

Mrs. Nyberg chose for her daughter's wedding a blue suit with brown accessories and Mrs. Clark wore a black suit and white accessories, each with a white rose corsage.

A reception followed at the bride's home, with over 80 guests attending. The dining table was decorated with a four-tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride couple, with pink and white tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Lawrence Nichols and Mrs. Norman Ahlgren presided.

Guests were from Erie, Centerville, Warren, Youngsville, Kane, Jamestown, Buffalo, N. Y., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

For a short honeymoon, the bride wore a gray suit, green accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in Youngsville.

Mrs. Clark is a graduate of Warren High School and attended Jamestown Business College and Indiana State Teachers College.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Youngsville High School and, with his wife, is employed by the National Forge and Ordnance Company at Irvine.

Parties were given for the bride-elect by Mrs. Earl Walters and Mrs. William Sandberg, Mrs. Gordon Clark and Mrs. Hymen Dale of Youngsville; Miss Hunzinger, Starbrick; Mrs. Lawrence Nichols and Mrs. N. B. Huling, Irvine, and the Misses Elsa and Verna Nyberg.

Musical Treat

It was good news to many old friends in the community when announcement was made recently that Pianist-composer-teacher Harold Triggs is giving a piano recital at the Woman's Club auditorium next Monday evening, May 24. This might be called a belated observance of Music Week; last year his program in Warren was given for the Philomel Club during National Music Week. This year both Woman's Club and Philomel Club members and their guests have the privilege of hearing him. Mr. Triggs teaches piano at Columbia University; also at a school near New York, and privately in New York. In addition to this heavy schedule, he seems to find time to do quite a bit of composing. Just a few weeks ago, the violinist Louis Kaufman used his "Danza Brasileira" for the final number on his Town Hall (New York City) program. Mr. Kaufman has included the piece also in an album of recordings which has come out recently.

Harold Triggs has done much duo-piano team work—both in concert and for radio. He was heard here several years ago with Lady Joan Moore; and played extensively with Vera Brodsky, his Town Hall bow a few years ago.

Julie Rive-King gave Warren a break when she brought her talented young pupil, Harold Triggs, to play for the Philomel Club, and through his generosity, Warren has been able to hear a lot of excellent playing over a period of years. A pianist with the great Lhevinne tradition behind him, he is an artist of fine calibre.

Annual Banquet
Of DeForest Class

The theme used for the annual banquet of the Gerda DeForest Class of First Presbyterian church, held at the Hotel Carver, was "In the Garden." A centerpiece of fresh vegetables and flowers were also in keeping with the theme. The toastmaster, Catherine Henderson, presented an amusing program in which the members participated.

Mrs. DeForest distributed to each member several keepsakes which will help them remember the occasion.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. DeForest was presented with an appropriate gift.

The committee in charge of arrangements for this delicious dinner was comprised of Agnes Mong, Olive Phillips, Mildred Duffy, Marie Olmstead and Marie Richards.

Beautiful Church Rite May 15 Unites
Helen Ann Nyberg-Robert E. Clark

Irvine Presbyterian church was the scene of a beautiful candle-light wedding on Saturday evening, May 15, when Helen Ann Nyberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Nyberg, of Irvine, was united in marriage to Robert Eugene Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clark, Youngsville.

The double ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock by Dr. W. J. Prout. The altar was decorated with an attractive arrangement of white lilies and pink snapdragons, palms and candelabra, and single candles on pedestals. The setting was complemented with candles and matching flowers placed in each window.

Miss Lillian Swanson, Youngsville, played "At Dawning," "Venetian Love Song," "To a Wild Rose" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony, also the traditional Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches. She was also accompanist for Byron Swanson, Warren, who sang "Because" and "I Love Thee" before the ceremony, and "O Perfect Love" as the couple knelt at the altar following prayer by Dr. Prout.

The bride was very lovely in ivory satin, with long train and veil. Her princess style gown had long fitted sleeves coming to points over the hands, and seed pearls edged the Venetian lace yoke and inserts extending over the top of the sleeves. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and for something old she carried a lace handkerchief fashioned from the wedding gown of a great-aunt. Her flowers were pink roses and lilies of the valley and a spray of the latter caught the back of her veil as it fell from a brief shirred tiera.

Given in marriage by her father, she was attended by her three sisters, Marian and Verna as bridesmaids and Elsa as maid of honor. The bridesmaids wore identical frocks of yellow taffeta, with matching mitts, gold headbands and slippers, and carried orchid tulips with gold and orchid streamers. The maid of honor wore a pink taffeta gown, with matching headband and shoulder length veil. Her flowers were carnations, blue, pink and white, with blue and silver streamers.

Jack Dailey, Irvine, was best man and ushers were Henry Nyberg and Jim Clark, brothers of the principals.

Mrs. Nyberg chose for her daughter's wedding a blue suit with brown accessories and Mrs. Clark wore a black suit and white accessories, each with a white rose corsage.

A reception followed at the bride's home, with over 80 guests attending. The dining table was decorated with a four-tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride couple, with pink and white tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Lawrence Nichols and Mrs. Norman Ahlgren presided.

Guests were from Erie, Centerville, Warren, Youngsville, Kane, Jamestown, Buffalo, N. Y., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

For a short honeymoon, the bride wore a gray suit, green accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in Youngsville.

Mrs. Clark is a graduate of Warren High School and attended Jamestown Business College and Indiana State Teachers College.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Youngsville High School and, with his wife, is employed by the National Forge and Ordnance Company at Irvine.

Parties were given for the bride-elect by Mrs. Earl Walters and Mrs. William Sandberg, Mrs. Gordon Clark and Mrs. Hymen Dale of Youngsville; Miss Hunzinger, Starbuck; Mrs. Lawrence Nichols and Mrs. N. B. Huling, Irvine, and the Misses Elsa and Verna Nyberg.

Musical Treat

It was good news to many old friends in the community when announcement was made recently that Pianist-composer-teacher Harold Triggs is giving a piano recital at the Woman's Club auditorium next Monday evening, May 24. This might be called a belated observance of Music Week; last year his program in Warren was given for the Philomel Club during National Music Week. This year both Woman's Club and Philomel Club members and their guests have the privilege of hearing him. Mr. Triggs teaches piano at Columbia University; also at a school near New York, and privately in New York. In addition to this heavy schedule, he seems to find time to do quite a bit of composing. Just a few weeks ago, the violinist Louis Kaufman used his "Danza Brasileira" for the final number on his recent tour.

Town Hall (New York City) program. Mr. Kaufman has included the piece also in an album of recordings which has come out recently.

Harold Triggs has done much duo-piano team work—both in concert and for radio. He was heard here several years ago with Lady Joan Moore; and played extensively with Vera Brodsky. his Town Hall bow a few years ago.

Julie Rive-King gave Warren a break when she brought her talented young pupil, Harold Triggs, to play for the Philomel Club, and through his generosity, Warren has been able to hear a lot of excellent playing over a period of years. A pianist with the great Lhevinne tradition behind him, he is an artist of fine calibre.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

He was an old man, but he was a researcher and he was working on a fascinating experiment — he was seeking an "Elixir of Life". Into twelve decrepit, aging dogs, he injected an extract taken from the testes of healthy young guinea pigs. Eleven dogs were unaffected, the twelfth seemed to be rejuvenated. Could it be...? Charles Brown Squard injected himself with the extract — he felt younger, more vigorous. The "Elixir of Life" was found, and with it, man's first knowledge of hormones. Knowledge which may truly lead to the Fountain of Youth.

Judge Burton Laub, of Erie county, who presided specially here in the case of Gamble Building Corporation vs. Beatrice T. Marus also known as Beatrice T. Alexander, yesterday handed down an opinion which found in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $5665.48 and interest, a total of $6157.44.

The case excited some interest here in that it involved a children's summer camp in Sugar Grove township. Judge Allison D. Wade at the time of the hearing, disqualified himself to preside in the matter because of having certain beforehand knowledge of the case, and for this reason Judge Laub was called in.

Alexander and Clark represented the Gamble Company while the defendant was represented by R. Pieper Eaton.

They were:

Renneth E. Grosch of R.D. 1 Clarendon.

Michael T. Moldovan, 515 Whipple street, Sheffield.

Chapter 18

PEBBLES slid and crunched beneath their boots as Vince and Johanson trudged along the tide line toward the Oland farm. Since leaving the house the investigator had been sunk in a morose silence but now he pointed at a V formation of ducks silhouetted against the somber sky.

"Look at that, Bonny! Teal—they're flying south already!"

"Well, Johanson, I'm afraid you're another victim of Mannley's."

Johanson grunted and sent a stone skipping across the water.

"The more I learn of that son-of-a-gun the more I wonder why he wasn't murdered long ago. Every member of his family certainly had a motive."

"Except Julia," Vince corrected.

"She had the most obvious reason of all—money."

"Julia has her own inheritance. Mannley was just her legal guardian."

Johanson shot him an incredulous glance. "I went through his papers. Bonny, Julia didn't inherit much—about fifty thousand—plus with both Mannley and Sophie dead and Hugh not coming home, she was left to come into a fortune."

"But Julia, Julia couldn't."

"Why not? She's very attractive. I'll agree, but you know as well as I do that you can't judge a criminal's motives by his outside."

"A minute ago you were convinced the murderer was Hugh," Vince argued.

"The investigator struggled. 'I don't know. Everyone insists he's quite harmless, but suppose he had a shade that restored his memory? Wouldn't it be logical for him to blame Mannley and his sister for his predicament?'"

"But he had no reason to hate Julia."

"A maniac doesn't need a reason, that's why I'm having Julia sorted out from the rest of the family next in line for all we know, I'm getting Dr. Zendo over from Seattle to examine Hugh; he's a noted psychiatrist and I've staked my reputation on him more than once."

"Well, if Hugh was at the Olands all day he couldn't have killed Sophie."

"Johanson's reply to that was a noncommittal snort."

They had arrived at the Olands clearing. A narrow planned walk led up to a one-story house which seemed dead in need of repair, yet it was packed with rows of corn and cabbages on the side of the well-cultivated and the grazing trio of cows, fat and sleek. The front door was wide but as they approached it slowly swung shut and a window curtain was fluffed suspiciously.

"Apparently the Olands are not the subtle type," Johanson said and chuckled.

In a moment a blowzy woman in a soiled dress appeared, she stared and pushed back a strand of sun-bleached hair. "What you want?"

"We've come to see about Hugh Mannley," Johanson informed her.

"He isn't here an I'm in the middle of doing my wash."

"The Oland's investigator said solemnly: 'We are in a bit of a hurry. We know that Hugh was brought here last night after a murder was committed by hiding him. You are making yourself unable to assist.'"

Her porcine eyes widened. "I know it, I know it, I told you not to do it."

Johanson's tone was amazing,ly polite. "What did they pay you?"

"Twenty dollars."

"Who brought him here?"

"Bernie, my son, Bernie. Miss Sophie said she was in a bit of a hurry. She pointed significantly to her head with a damp soapy finger. "And that seeing the police and hearing all the excitement would make him worse."

"Well, where is he? We'd like to see him."

Mrs. Oland's hands twisted her apron nervously. "He isn't here. He disappeared this morning—I forgot to lock his door after giving him breakfast."

She ran away through Vince like an electric current. When did he leave?

"Musta been around eleven," Mrs. and Bernie are still looking for him. Gawd, if Miss Sophie gets wind of it!"

Johanson didn't tell her that it would make no difference to Sophie now.

If they and Hugh or he returns here, I want him brought to the house immediately," Johanson pointed out. "Is that what Mrs. Oland?"

"Sure I got you!" She chuckled with obvious relief and waved toward the woods. "If you take the short cut, it's easier walking."

They lapsed into a silence broken only by the soft pad of their feet on the moss-carpeted trail. The visibility was poor and Vince almost fell to his knees when his foot caught on a loose object. He cursed in exasperation.

"Turn your ankle!" Johanson came back to his side.

"Well, I found something," look at this."

Together they examined the expensive well-tailored jacket. Johanson turned his pocket flashlight on the label "Boots Bros. Inc., Erie, Pa." and read aloud and with a vision of sharp.

"Recognize that, Bonny?"

Vince nodded. "Yes, it's the one Hugh was wearing yesterday."

The navel officer searched the sides of the trail while Johanson continued his examination of the jacket. "There's blood on the right cuff," he announced triumphantly. "That catches it for me."

"Why? He could have scratched his hand on those wild blackberries."

"No, being unfamiliar with a meat skewer stuck himself. Well, Bonny, I'm through fooling around. . . as soon as we get back to the house I'm sending Bates out to town for the Sheriff's bloodhounds. They'll get him."

Vince had a vision of Hugh's face contorted in childish terror. "Man, you can't do that! Julia said he was scared to death of dogs!"

"That's too bad," Johanson's voice was wearily merciless. "He was a clear cut murderer. We can't take any more chances with him."

Local Grange Buys Building On South Side

Warren Grange has acquired the former Yeaglo building, at the triangle of St. Clair street and Crescent Park, near the south approach of the Hickory street bridge and good progress is being made in converting the second floor of the structure into quarters to be used by the lodge for meetings and parties.

When improvements are completed the lodge will have a hall 34 feet wide and 59 feet long for meetings, there will be a dining room 13 feet wide and 24 feet long, and a kitchen 14 feet square.

The structure is ideally located for a Grange Hall, with plenty of parking space on streets adjacent to the property, and the nearby Crescent Park for outdoor gatherings when weather permits.

Members of the Grange stated today that the present tenant on the first floor will continue to occupy that space.

The property was purchased from the Schirok estate at an unnamed price.

MYERS OPPOSED TO A FLOOD CONTROL CUT

Washington, May 19—(AP)—Senator Myers (D-Pa.), is opposed to the suggested $200,000,000 slice in flood control and rivers and harbors appropriations.

In a statement issued yesterday he said such work is a worthy function of government "and must not be jeopardized by the penny-pinching of ultra-economizers."

The Senator also said that he doubted if the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce acquainted itself with the views of its local chambers before urging support of the cut proposed by a group of senators.

Market Quotations

New York, May 19—(AP)—The stock market swung ahead decisively today.

Early irregularity rapidly gave way to a forward trend as public demand picked up. Gains ranged from fractions to around a point in morning dealings.

Volume expanded as prices advanced although the appearance of large blocks of stock on the ticker tape was noticeably absent.

Among the gainers—some sold at lower prices in the first half hour of business—were Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, Studebaker, Goodyear, J. I. Case, United Aircraft, Western Union, Anaconda, American Smelting, American Can, American Woolen, Chicago Corp., Pepsi-Cola, Southern Pacific, Sinclair Oil, and Mission Corp.

Transcontinental & Western Air, a weak spot Tuesday on disclosure of the company's weakened financial situation, was under pressure again.

New York, May 19—(AP)—Noon stocks: Vol. 910,000.

Break Comes Over Seating of Delegate from now on." This was a reference to joint UMW-Operator sharing of costs for a hotel (Shoreham) ballroom where the talks had been held.

Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the mine owners, said after the breakup he thought the situation was "serious."

"Whether this will drift into a strike I do not know," O'Neill told a news conference. He added: "What the government will do about it, I do not know."

"The consequences cannot be guessed. The union left. There is no conference. All negotiations for a contract at this point are stopped. Unless there is a change in positions there will be no negotiations."

O'Neill contended Moody "was here as a proper representative" of operators whose mines produce about 150,000,000 tons of coal yearly.

The fight over seating Moody started at the opening session of the negotiations yesterday.

Lewis said then that the southern groups which make up the Southern Coal Producers Association were not complying with their contract when they did not appear at the conference as individuals to bargain a new agreement.

The union's present wage agreement expires June 30. Traditionally, the miners have refused to work without a contract.

While Lewis yesterday did not make a direct threat of a strike because of what he called a breach of contract, that possibility existed nevertheless.

His call for a meeting of the UMW's 200-man policy committee tomorrow indicated he has some move in mind.

The union still is under a court injunction prohibiting renewal of the recent strike over pensions for miners, but the court might rule that another walkout would be a brand new dispute. In such a case, a new injunction might have to be sought by the government under the Taft-Hartley act procedure.

The government yesterday sought dismissal of the anti-strike injunction, on the grounds that mines are in full production, the pension dispute is being handled in the courts and the public interest is "secure." Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough deferred a ruling on the request.

Although a newcomer to the negotiation conferences, Moody was tangled with the United Mine Workers chief before. He charged Lewis with unfair labor practices for not permitting him to attend negotiations during the recent pension dispute. That case still is pending before the National Labor Relations Board in Baltimore.

In addition to Moody's personal fight, the operators maintain that under the Taft-Hartley law Lewis could not dictate who may represent the employers in bargaining sessions.

But Lewis said that the 14 southern groups had signed the 1947 contract which required them to negotiate a new one if the miners want it. He added that failure to be represented at the bargaining conference would be a violation of the contract.

That appeared to contain a possible threat that the 125,000 min-

Five Escape From HUNTINGDON JAIL

Huntingdon, May 19—(AP)—Five prisoners escaped from Huntingdon county jail today by sawing bars from a washroom window and then scaling a 14 foot wall with the aid of planks and ropes made from sheets.

One of the fugitives, identified by State Policeman Robert Daley as Oscar McKinney, 17, Washington, was recaptured within 30 minutes after the break five miles south of the prison.

Daley identified the others as Joseph Contrillo, 22, Central City; Gerald W. Iser, Riddelsburg; Clarence Knable, and William J. Rider, 22, Huntingdon.

The policeman said this was the second break from the jail within a month for Contrillo and Iser, both of whom escaped May 3, but were apprehended a short while later. The two men are serving sentences on charges of forgery.

School Music Boosters Name New Officers For The Year

Members of Warren School Boosters Club, Inc., held their annual business session in the Beaty school auditorium Tuesday evening and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Lyle N. Schuler; vice president, William Wehner; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart; new directors, Richard G. Smith and Mrs. Harry Hutchings, retiring president and secretary-treasurer, C. Erickson.

The business session was conducted by Mr. Smith, with reports of the secretary-treasurer and the chairman of the nominating committee, C. Erickson.

Members voted to pay the Dragon band transportation costs for their trip to and from Bradford for the recent band exchange concert; also to assist Harry Summers in his plans for summer band and orchestra school, July 12 to August 20. The annual senior awards were continued by the club and the usual advertising was voted for the 1948 Dragon. Mr. Smith appointed Elmer Lundahl and John Harrington as an auditing committee.

An unexpected bit of entertainment was provided for the program by Harry Summers and his third band, playing five short numbers. Included in the program were "Rhythmic Rascals," "Sailing," "Music Makers' Overture," "Over the Waves," and "Graduation March."

This group of young people was last heard by the Boosters in October, when it was newly organized and just beginning to learn the ins and outs of ensemble playing. At that time students demonstrated the playing of unison scale exercises and various other drills through which they are put by Mr. Summers for their training. It was quite a surprise last night to the audience to hear the type of music they are able to play in eight short months. It demonstrated more forcibly than ever why the first band is so outstanding when Mr. Summers has replacements of this type coming up through the ranks.

General Public Invited To Inspect Handsome Office Quarters Of Local Staff

At 225 Pennsylvania avenue, west, there's a neat blue and gold shingle, shaped like a keystone, which reads:

"Pennsylvania State Employment Service. Affiliated with the United States Employment Service."

During the past several years, a lot of district residents have visited the office. Some of the callers were seeking help in obtaining employment; some were filing claims for unemployment compensation; some were employers or contractors who needed men and women to fill jobs.

The genial office manager David W. Levine, and his staff of trained counselors and aides feel that more people ought to know about the valuable services available at this office, so they're holding "Open House."

The "Open House" will be held tomorrow evening from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock and again on Friday evening at the same hours.

The entire office staff will be on hand to welcome visitors, to explain the work of the various divisions, and, incidentally, to show off the newly remodeled offices.

Persons who saw the dark booths that served as working quarters for the staff prior to the remodeling work can hardly believe their eyes at the remarkable transformation that has been made with a little paint, some modern lighting fixtures and other improvements.

Court Fight In Rail Wage Issue Delayed

Washington, May 19—(AP)—A court fight scheduled today in the railroad labor dispute has been postponed until May 28 to clear the track for renewed bargaining talks between the rail companies and the Engineers, Firemen, and Switchmen.

The government on May 10 averted a strike by the three unions. It seized the railroads and got Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough to issue a restraining order against the walkout.

This order was to expire tonight, and Goldsborough had set a hearing for today on a justice department motion for an injunction that would keep the unions at work for a longer period.

But last night, at the justice department's request, Judge Goldsborough cleared away those legalities in this way:

1. He extended the restraining order for 10 more days, until May 29, at 7:45 p. m. (6:45 Eastern Standard Time.)

2. He postponed the injunction hearing until the morning of Friday, May 28.

Justice department lawyers said they made the request because of the renewed efforts to settle the long dispute over working rules and wages.

A settlement would mean a quick return of the railroads to their owners.

The entire office staff will be on hand to welcome visitors, to explain the work of the various divisions, and, incidentally, to show off the newly remodeled offices.

Persons who saw the dark booths that served as working quarters for the staff prior to the remodeling work can hardly believe their eyes at the remarkable transformation that has been made with a little paint, some modern lighting fixtures and other improvements.

Commonwealth officials who have visited here on business during the past week praised the remodeling work, and said the office now rank among the best in the state.

Center of attraction for the open house program will be the office's "Tool Crib." You won't find picks and shovels or wrenches in the crib, but there will be various types of books and testing apparatus. These books aid the counselors in fitting job applicant into his proper classification—there's some 28,000 different types of jobs listed—while the test boards are used to determine a person's dexterity and proficiency at skills that require nimble fingers.

The small office near the front of the main office provide private quarters where applicants can take the tests and also for conference and advanced training work for staff members.

Near the entrance, there's a double desk presided over by Vida J. Knudgaard, supervisor of the division of unemployment compensation and Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance, and Mary E. Donick, senior clerk for unemployment compensation.

To the left of this desk, is the "heart" of the office, it's the desk for the receptionist, Harriet M. Lind. At her finger-tips is a master file of all persons who have sought the help of the office in obtaining employment.

She also has forms available which persons making their first visit to the office fill out.

The receptionist then sets up the office route for an applicant. That simply means, she determines to which division of the office the applicant should be referred.

Andrew J. Donick is one of the three trained counselors in the office. He also is veterans' employment representative.

Mrs. Julia Decker, another counselor, is in charge of clerical and professional job placements, and also is a test administrator.

Francis J. Buchanan is the farm placement representative, and also handles the regular male selective and referral interviews, along with administering the proficiency and dexterity tests.

Handicapped persons who are still able to continue certain types of employment are referred to Harry Schmidt, Pennsylvania Rehabilitation representative.

One of the outstanding services offered by the office is supplying employers and prospective contractors, with information on the labor supply and prevailing wage rates in the district. A large portion of the information is based on statistics reported by 32 firms in the district, each of whom employs 50 or more workers. Additional information is supplied by smaller firms and farmers.

At the first of this month, the office had in its active file the names of 321 men and women over sixteen years of age who had filed applications for employment. Job placements during the month of April totaled 155, while 46 visits were made to employers to determine their employment needs.

In the past year, the unemployment compensation division has handled claims for compensation totalling $212,000, including $109,000 in jobless benefits and $103,000 for Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance.

Golf In a Stroke

Short Putting Backswing Makes Harmon's Follow Through Long

(Seventh of a series written for NEA Service)

By CLAUDE HARMON

Master of the Masters
Winged Foot Golf Club, Mamaroneck, N. Y.—(NEA)—There are as many stances in putting as there are golfers.

The reason is the rule. Always be comfortable. And there is no better advice.

There are many different theories about putting, and they all may be right for certain individuals. All I can do is tell you the style I use. You may have luck with it, too.

The putting stroke has rightly been called the bottom half of the long swing. This is especially true in my style.

As seen in the accompanying photograph, I employ a very short backswing which naturally makes my follow through long.

Notice that the blade of the club is close to the ground at all times. Concentrate on keeping the wrists straight. There should not be the slightest break at impact as there is in the long swing.

Strive for smoothness. Let the club swing as a pendulum. Practice as much as possible. Putting is many times the difficult and courage of this bullet team.

Bud has put in 10 years as a basketball player, starting with the old H.V. Oiler here, and then at Detroit, Sheboygan, and Rochester before being up with the Bullets.

FAMILY AFFAIR: At Harrington, Del., five Myer brothers—Buddy, James, Billy, Ellis and Alton—are professional drivers competing at the Fair Grounds harness horse meeting.

Two more, Francis and Ralph, drive in amateur meetings. An eighth, Bobby, helps train the Myer horses when on furlough from the army.

A ninth, Paul, 15, is learning the business. Edwin Myer, Sr., father of the boys, drove until sidelined by health.

Granpappy Myer, crowding 80, remains an avid follower of trotters and pacers. Incidentally, the average running horse, galloping at top speed with a jockey on his back, negotiates about 53 feet per second.

Equipoise, holder of the American mile mark, 1:34 2/5, traveled at the rate of 55.95. A harness horse, stepping a mile at a two-minute gait, travels 44 feet per second.

In 1938 when Billy Direct paced a mile in the fastest time for any standardbred, 1:55, his average was a fraction short of 46 feet per second.

BOBBING in SPORTS

by BOB MOORHEAD

SIDELINED: Harry Edward (Bud) Jeannette, player-coach of the Baltimore Bullets, which won the Basketball Association of America championship in a grueling playoff series with the Philadelphia Warriors, says he's through as a player.

He has no idea how many thousands of miles he has put behind him on the polished floors, but he can feel them in his legs.

"I'm getting old," he said, looking less than 30. "That was my last season out there. I've had enough. I played more than anybody else this year and that's 65 basketball games. I'm going to sit some from now on."

As an old man in a young man's game, Buddy kicked up quite a dust this year. He was the most important factor in the Bullet championship drive, the third high scorer, a sharp trader in court talent and an mentor to mid not during the games. He claims none of the credit for himself, and makes no mystery of his team's winning ways.

"Why," the former Warren Independent cager said, "we just hustled and fought until we won. Now, we don't have many set plays. Now and then, you know, but mostly just fought. I've been on teams with better ball players, but never one that had the fight and courage of this Bullet team.

Women Take An Interest In Trapping

Harrisburg, May 19—(P)—Pennsylvania women are taking an active interest in the fur trade—the trapping end, says the state game commission.

Women trappers snared more than 125 beavers during the past Beaver season, the commission announced today.

This would indicate, said the commission, that "the fair sex is taking an active interest in the fur trade."

Meanwhile, the commission said the 1948 beaver trapping season brought the second largest harvest crop of the valuable fur bearers since the first open season in 1934.

A record total of 2,910 beavers were taken in the commonwealth during the two-week season in late February.

The commission said the recent season was open only to Pennsylvania residents and each trapper was limited to a take of two animals. Crawford county took the state beaver trapping crown with a catch of 389, while Warren county was runner-up with 289.

Long Pennsylvania's most valuable furbearer, the present beaver population in the state has descended from a few pairs of imported animals transplanted by the game commission from Wisconsin in 1917 and from Algonquin Park, Canada.

More than 26,000 of the broad-tails have been harvested since the first open season in 1934.

Junior Loop Ready For 1st Tilts May 27

Junior Baseball League officers and representatives met in the YMCA last night to approve the league bylaws and draft a schedule.

The eight-team loop will start Thursday, May 27, with four games scheduled. Rosters of each team must be filed with the league secretary, Bob Moorehead, at the Times-Mirror office before the opening date.

The meeting was in charge of the league president, Cyril Little. Teams competing in the loop are the State College, Conango, Elks and West End from Warren, and Clarndon, North Warren, Starbuck, Youngsville and Sugar Grove from the county area.

Home fields will be Russell field in Warren, the State Hospital diamond in North Warren, and diamonds in Clarndon, Starbuck and Sugar Grove. The games will be played Tuesday and Thursday evenings, starting at 6:30 o'clock EDT.

(Note: The schedule will be published tomorrow.)

MIDDLE ATLANTIC

By The Associated Press
Flashing bats of Middle Atlantic League swatters pounded out 94 runs in seven games last night.

Forty-seven of the scores were recorded in a double-header split by Youngstown and New Castle, the Colts downing New Castle 11-0 in the first game and losing the second 21-15. Youngstown Second baseman Nunny Macara belted three home runs to drive in seven tallies. Teammates George Shutch and New Castle Bob Crow also homered. Vestal allowed New Castle only two hits in the first game.

Kiner Slams Eighth Homer With Mate Aboard To Give Pirates Win Over the Braves

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

If Ralph Kiner continues to break up ball games, official scorers may have to add a new line in the major league baseball box.

Kiner slammed his eighth homer of the season with a mate aboard in the eighth inning last night to give the Pirates a 4-3 victory over Bill Voiselle and the Braves in Boston.

It marked the fourth time this season that a Kiner blast provided the winning runs for the Buccaneers.

A freak in the percentage table gave the Cleveland Indians the American League lead over Philadelphia despite the fact they trailed the Athletics by a half game.

The mathematical oddity occurred when the Indians defeated the A's last night, 6-1, in Cleveland. It was their 14th win in 20 starts for a .700 percentage, a four point lead over the A's who have won 16 and lost seven for .696.

Enos Slaughter, the Cards' "money player," and big Red Munger collaborated to give the Redbirds a 4-3 win over the Dodgers in Ebbets Field. Slaughter's tremendous home run with one on in the sixth inning provided the winning margin for the Cards, who extended their current winning streak to four straight.

The St. Louis Browns handed the New York Yankees a surprise 6-5 trimming and initiated the season's first defeat upon righthander Alie Reynolds. The Yankees' Indian hurler had won his first five starts.

At Detroit, the Tigers spotted the visiting Boston Red Sox a 6-0 lead and then tallied seven runs off Dave Ferriss and two successors to win, 10-7. The defeat snapped a four-game winning streak for the Red Sox.

The Washington Senators won a 5-4 twelve-inning victory over the White Sox in Chicago. It was the Sox' 11th defeat in their last 12 games.

The Giants inaugurated their home night season by defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 6-5, to remain within a game and a half of the National League lead.

The Chicago Cubs topped the Phillies, 3-2, at Philadelphia. All Cubs' runs were unearned.

The reason is the rule: Always be comfortable. And there is no better advice.

There are many different theories about putting, and they all may be right for certain individuals.

All I can do is tell you the style I use. You may have luck with it, too.

The putting stroke has rightly been called the bottom half of the long swing. This is especially true in my style.

As seen in the accompanying photograph, I employ a very short backswing which naturally makes my follow through long.

Notice that the blade of the club is close to the ground at all times. Concentrate on keeping the wrists straight. There should not be the slightest break at impact as there is in the long swing.

Strive for smoothness. Let the club swing as a pendulum. Practice as much as possible. Putting is many times the dif-

BOBBING in SPORTS

by BOB MOORHEAD

SIDELINED: Harry Edward (Bud) Jeannette, player-coach of the Baltimore Bullets, which won the Basketball Association of America championship in a grueling playoff series with the Philadelphia Warriors, says he's through as a player.

He has no idea how many thousands of miles he has put behind him on the polished floors, but he can feel them in his legs.

"I'm getting old," he said, looking less than 30. "That was my last season out there. I've had enough. I played more than any other player this year and that's 65 basketball games. I'm going to sit some from now on."

As an old man in a young man's game, Buddy kicked up quite a dust this year. He was the most important factor in the Bullets' championship drive, the third highest scorer, a sharp trader in court talent and an inciter to mild riot during the games. He claims none of the credit for himself, and makes no mystery of his team's winning ways.

"Why," the former Warren Independent cager said, "we just hustled and fought until we won. Now, we don't have many set plays. Now and then, you know, but mostly just fought. . . I've been on teams with better ball players, but never one that had the fight and courage of this Bullets team."

Bud has put in 10 years as a basketball player, starting with the old HyVie Oilers here, and then at Detroit, Sheboygan, and Rochester before tying up with the Bullets.

FAMILY AFFAIR: At Harrington, Del., five Myer brothers—Eddie, James, Billy, Ellis and Allen—are professional drivers competing at the Fair Grounds harness horse meeting.

Two more, Francis and Ralph, drive in amateur meetings. An eighth, Bobby, helps train the Myer horses when on furlough from the army.

A ninth, Paul, 15, is learning the business. Edwin Myer, Sr., father of the boys, drove until sidelined by health. Grandpappy Harvey Myer, crowding 90, remains an avid follower of trotters and pacers.

Incidentally, the average running horse, galloping at top speed with a jockey on his back, negotiates about 53 feet per second. Equipoise, holder of the American mile mark, 1:34 2/5, traveled at the rate of 55.93. A harness horse, stepping a mile at a two-minute gait, travels 44 feet per second. In 1938 when Billy Direct paced a mile in the fastest time for any standardbred, 1:55, his average was a fraction short of 46 feet per second.

There are five great ocean currents flowing from warm to cold latitudes and affecting the climate of adjacent lands: the Gulf Stream, starting in the Gulf of Mexico, the Japan Current starting in the Western Pacific, the Agulhas Current flowing south along the east coast of Africa, the East Australia Current near Australia and the Brazil current.

Women Take An Interest In Trapping

Harrisburg, May 19—(AP)—Pennsylvania women are taking an active interest in the fur trade—the trapping end, says the state game commission.

Women trappers snared more than 125 Beavers during the past Beaver season, the commission announced today.

This would indicate, said the commission, that "the fair sex is taking an active interest in the fur trade."

Meanwhile, the commission said the 1948 beaver trapping season brought the second largest harvest crop of the valuable fur bearers since the first open season in 1934.

A record total of 2,910 beavers were taken in the commonwealth during the two-week season in late February.

The commission said the recent season was open only to Pennsylvania residents and each trapper was limited to a take of two animals. Crawford county took the state beaver trapping crown with a catch of 389, while Warren county was runner-up with 239.

Long Pennsylvania's most valuable furbearer, the present beaver population in the state has descended from a few pairs of imported animals transplanted by the game commission from Wisconsin in 1917 and from Algonquin Park, Canada.

More than 26,000 of the broad-tails have been harvested since the first open season in 1934.

Junior Baseball League officers and representatives met in the Y last night to approve the league bylaws and draft a schedule.

The eight-team loop will start Thursday, May 27, with four games scheduled. Rosters of each team must be filed with the league secretary, Bob Moorehead, at the Times-Mirror office before the opening date.

The meeting was in charge of the league president, Cyril Little. Teams competing in the loop are East Side, Conewago Elks and West End from Warren, and Clarendon, North Warren, Starbrick, Youngsville and Sugar Grove from the county area.

Home fields will be Russell field in Warren, the State Hospital diamond in North Warren, and diamonds in Clarendon, Starbrick and Sugar Grove. The games will be played Tuesday and Thursday evenings, starting at 6:30 o'clock DST.

(Note: The schedule will be published tomorrow.)

MIDDLE ATLANTIC
By The Associated Press
Flashing bats of Middle Atlantic League swatters pounded out 94 runs in seven games last night.

Forty-seven of the scores were recorded in a double-header split by Youngstown and New Castle, the Colts downing New Castle 11-0 in the first game and losing the second 21-15. Youngstown Second baseman Nummy Mason belted three home runs to drive in seven tallies. Teammates George Shutch and New Castle Bob Crow also homered. Vestal allowed New Castle only two hits in the first game.

They have that Certain Air

The polar bear and Budweiser have one thing in common . . . each grows up in the cleanest of air. Beginning in the starting cellars, where yeast is added to the brew, and on down through the fermenting, ageing and finishing cellars, ingenious filters keep the air pure. This costly precaution protects our priceless, pure-cultured yeast from micro-organisms that could mar and even ruin its all-important work. This safeguard is only one of many, many steps that makes ours the most expensive brewing process known. Every sip of Budweiser says it's worth it.

Johnstown, 3-2 and 6-2. Johnstown got only four hits of Segzda in the first game but developed a threatening rally in the seventh which required Bungardner to come in and put out the fire. The double loss dropped Johnstown from second to fourth place in the standings.

League-leading Erie split a double header with Vandergrift, losing the first game 10-8 and winning the second in 10 innings, 6-5. Fred Shipman's homer gave the Tars their overtime victory.

In the only single bill of the evening, Butler won a well-played contest from Oil City, 5-0. Al Cicotte holding the Oilers to five safeties. Art Seguso drove in four runs for Butler, getting a home run, a triple and a double.
